

For Students Enrolled in GLY 6931 (Geology Seminar) Fall 2020
Via Zoom, Thursday 3:30-4:30, unless otherwise specified

- 1) After each Department seminar, write a short (1/2 page, single-spaced) report, listing and briefly discussing the most important points of the presentation. Twelve (12) reports are due during the semester. A list of speakers is posted on the Geological Sciences website and titles will be posted as they are received.
- 2) <http://geology.ufl.edu/seminarseries/>
- 3) Most seminars will be hosted by Geological Sciences, but now and then we may designate a seminar hosted by another department or center (Biology, Water Institute, Climate Institute) as our official seminar for the week. The same reporting guidelines apply.
- 4) E-mail the report (as a Word file) to me at brenner@ufl.edu before the following week's seminar. Include your name and the speaker's name in the subject line containing your report. Please do the same for the file name, e.g. Jones (Smith seminar).docx.
- 5) If you cannot join a seminar, contact me to arrange a make-up. If you have travel or other obligations, contact me in advance about making a substitution. You can substitute another campus seminar if you arrange to do so ahead of time.
- 6) If you identify interesting seminars in other units, by all means, attend them. But attendance at seminars elsewhere is not a substitute for attending departmental seminars. Please submit reports in a timely fashion.

Academic Honesty Policy

Students must conform to UF's academic honesty policy regarding plagiarism and other forms of cheating. This means that on all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: "On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment." The university specifically prohibits cheating, plagiarism, misrepresentation, bribery, conspiracy, and fabrication. For more information about the definition of these terms and other aspects of the Honesty Guidelines, see <https://sccr.dso.ufl.edu/process/student-honor-code/>. All students found to have cheated, plagiarized, or otherwise violated the Honor Code in any assignment for this course will be prosecuted to the full extent of the university honor policy, including judicial action and the sanctions listed in paragraph XI of the Student Conduct Code.

Accommodations for Students with Disabilities

Please request accommodation for a documented disability. Students who request classroom accommodation must first register with the Dean of Students Office (<http://www.dso.ufl.edu/drp/>). The Dean of Students Office will provide documentation to the student, who must then provide this documentation to the Instructor. Please ask the instructor if you need assistance with this process. Please provide this information during the first two weeks of the semester.

Course Evaluations

"Students are expected to provide professional and respectful feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing course evaluations online via GatorEvals. Guidance on how to give feedback in a professional and respectful manner is available at <https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/students/>. Students will be notified when the evaluation period opens, and can complete evaluations through the email they receive from GatorEvals, in their Canvas course menu under GatorEvals, or via <https://ufl.bluera.com/ufl/>. Summaries of course evaluation results are available to students at <https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/public-results/>."
